SWEDEN

William H. Gordon of Sweden passed away Monday, July 26th, at 4:30 p. m., following an ill turn at 10 o'clock. Dr. E. J. Noyes, also his daughters, Alice Briggs and Lottie Morrison, were called at once and arrived before his death. He knew them, rallied somewhat, asked the day of the month and apparently realized that the end was near. He had been gradually failing in health for a year or more. Last week his children noticed that he was rapidly growing feeble, although the end came suddenly. Mr. Gordon was the son of the late John and Mary Shirley Gordon of Fryeburg and was one of a family of nine children, all of whom are now gone with the exception of his youngest brother, John W. Gordon, of Medford, Mass., who is also quite feeble. He was born in Sweden, May 28, 1845, and was a trifle over 82 years of age at the time of his death.

In 1869 he married Mary Ella Smart, daughter of Daniel and Mary Bourne Smart, also of Sweden. Four children were born to them, three girls and one boy, the oldest died when 28 years of age, Walter ten years ago. Mr. Gordon was a veteran of the Civil War, enlisting with the Fifth Maine Battery. He and his family have always lived at Black Mt., Sweden, where his death occurred. His grandson, Calvin Briggs, and wife, Mildred, lived with him and have tenderly cared for him since the death of his wife in 1921. Dorothy, his six year old great granddaughter, has been a great comfort to him, helping to pass away the lonely hours. He was a great lover of children, and in his younger days was a hard working man, he was always a kind neighbor, doing a kindness or helping in time of sickness and need. He was of a sunny disposition, full of jokes and fun, as comes natural to most of the Gordon family. Everything was done for him in his declining years, by his family that could possibly be done. He was a kind husband and father, always thinking of doing something for his children. He will be missed by a wide circle of friends.

He leaves to mourn their loss, two daughters, Mrs. Lester Briggs of Lowell and Mrs. Lottie Morrison of Bridgton, also one brother, John W. Gordon, of Medford, Mass., in addition to five grandchildren and eight great grandchildren, also nieces and nephews. Funeral services were held at the late residence attended by Rev. E. F. Doughty, pastor of the Methodist Church of Bridgton. Miss Sarah Pike sang some of his favorite hymns. The floral tributes were beautiful. The interment was in the family lot at Black Mountain Cemetery.

NOTICE TO STOCKHOLDERS

A special meeting of the stockholders of the Norway Shoe Shop Company will be held at the Municipal Court Room, Norway, Friday evening, August 12, 1927, at 8 o'clock, for the following purpose viz:—

BETHEL

Mrs. Betsy Cross Dead at Ninety-Two Years—Stowell Mill Closed—Guests of Mrs. A. E. K. Grover.

A service of prayer was held at Riverside Cemetery, Monday, at 11 o'clock, when the remains of Mrs. Betsy Cross, of Portland, formerly of Bethel, were buried in the family lot. The Rev. Leland Edwards, pastor of the Congregational Church, conducted the service, which was attended by relatives and friends in Bethel and elsewhere.

The death of Mrs. Betsy Cross, of Albany, which occurred July 25, at the advanced age of ninety-two years, brings to a close a remarkable life of usefulness, always ready to do for others, meeting cheerfully all tasks that fell to her lot. She has richly earned the rest that now is her reward. She was the widow of the late Orlando Cross of Bethel, of her immediate family, she leaves two sons and two daughters, a number of grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. Funeral services were held at her late home in Albany, by the side of her husband, who passed away several years ago.

Mrs. Brown was in Gorham, N. H., recently, to call on her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bean, Mr. Bean has been confined to his bed since May 30, and is a great sufferer.

It is reported that Clyde Bean of Gorham, N. H., son-in-law of Mrs. A. B. Richardson, is very perceptibly losing ground and at times is a great sufferer.

Mr. Bean has relatives and many friends in Bethel who express much sympathy.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Chapman and sister, Mrs. Teresa Grover of South Paris, were in town, Wednesday, July 27, for a short stay. They also paid a brief visit to Woodlawn Cemetery, Songro Road.

Arthur Jackson and Mrs. Ada Smith of Mayville took an auto trip to Albany, N. Y., recently. Mrs. Smith is much improved in health.

Two new bulletins have been issued by the Extension Service of the College of Agriculture and are available to anyone desiring copies.

How to Make Attractive Lamp Shades the title of an eight page publication which contains suggestions of how to make the different kinds of lamp shades. This will be of particular interest to women who take pleasure in making useful and decorative equipment for the home.

Poultry Housing is the title of the other publication that has just come from the press. While there was a bulletin on this subject before, this new one has been entirely revised and contains new drawings and pictures.

There are now a total of 29 publications on agriculture and 11 on home economics besides the annual reports which are available to Maine people upon request. Copies can be secured either from farm bureau office or from the Extension Service, Orono.

CASCO

The Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co., had its Second Annual Outing at the Woodland Springs Lodge, July 30, 1927 and with the management of W. B. McLaughlin of Portland and Chas. J. Williamson of Casco the guests were highly entertained with the following program—Ball game between the Office and Warehouse employees which resulted in the game being won by the latter 7 to 1.

The surroundings being ideal for bathing, canoeing, tennis and walks on the shore and in the woods, the management very cleverly left the enjoyment to the pleasure of the guests and not to any set schedule, the only suppression being when Hamden Tripp, former State Representative from Casco, took photographs.

One of the fine dinners of Woodland Spring Lodge was served to about two hundred people. A social dance followed closing at an early hour as they had as one expressed it "their satisfaction of a good time."

HARBOR

R. A. Burgess and daughter, Florence of Mattapan, Mass., visited his daughter, Mrs. Shirley Benson and his little grand son, over the week end.

Mrs. Nellie Charles of Massachusetts was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Gup-till, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hurd were in Norway, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hurd and Mrs. Ella Ham of Norway were guests at Her-bert Hurd's over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Stanley and son motored to Woodford, Sunday to meet their grandson, Richard Stanley, who is making his first visit alone with his grandparents.

July 25, the Ladies' Aid held their annual sale at the vestry and served supper to a large company. The North Fryeburg Band gave a concert on the lawn and Mrs. Holmes gave two violin selections and Little Caleb Gray gave recitations and songs.

BATES—WEST PARIS

Annual Convention at Finnish Congregational Church—Lawn Party—Leslie Doughty Breaks Ankles—Birthdays Party for Dr. Packard.

There has been during the past week, at the Finnish Congregational Church, their annual convention which closed on Sunday. There were nearly a dozen different preachers present during the week, coming from Massachusetts, Portland, and other places. An English speaking minister, Rev. Bliss, spoke last Sunday morning and was interpreted to the Finnish people by Rev. Hamalainen. Rev. Lauri Mattinen expects to close his pastorate here in a few weeks. He has been here about three years.

Thomas Galvin of New York City is boarding at the Maple House, he is a friend of one of Bert Barker's friends. A lawn party was held at the M. E. parsonage last Thursday afternoon and evening. Ice cream, candy and pies were on sale. In the evening a stereopticon lecture on Better Farm Homes was given. Victrola music was on both afternoon and evening. The evening was for the benefit of the young people who are going to Ocean Park. There are two from here and two from North Paris, Leone Bane, who has been twice before and will graduate this year, and Shirley Herrick, Evelyn Gibbs and Albert Cotton.

Annie Willis attended the funeral of Ida Shurtliff, at her cousin's, at South Paris, last Thursday. Emma Swan of Auburn was home with her sister, Gertrude Stuart, and stayed until Monday night.

Leslie Doughty had the misfortune to break the small bone of his leg last Saturday, while playing ball. Mrs. Leon Babel of Lawrence, Mass., visited her cousin, Mabel Ricker, from Monday until Friday of last week.

Ralph Abbott spent a vacation at the Y. M. C. A. camp at Winthrop.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Chester McAllister and Mr. and Mrs. Myrtle Emery are spending the week at their camp at Locke's Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Stearns and family are at their camp at Locke's Mills this week.

Several from here went to Old Orchard and saw Lindberg land. Others went to Portland where he intended to land and did not see him, July 28.

Frances Thayer of Waterville recently visited her aunt, Mrs. C. E. Stearns.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Dunham of Los Angeles, Cal., and Mrs. L. L. Dunham of Brattleboro, Vt., are stopping at the Hubbard House, Paris Hill, and come here daily in their auto to visit their brother, H. W. Dunham. They all spent the Old Home Day at North Paris last Saturday.

Their sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hamilton, were with them there also.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gammon and Mrs. Phila Mayhew attended the funeral of their nephew, Arthur Stevens, at Milton, who was struck by lightning last week.

The hardest electrical shower of the season was last Wednesday. Electricity came into several houses and places, but not very much damage was done except the radio in E. R. Berry's house was utterly demolished.

Carl Bacon has bought a small building on the South Paris road and had it moved to Trap Corner where he is having it put in shape for occupancy.

Maynard Chase and wife have moved into the lower part of the house opposite the depot. W. W. Gardner has raised the piazza roof another story and other changes, so that the second story rent is greatly improved and his daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Carl G. Emery, have moved upstairs into the second story rent.

Mrs. Clara Ridlon spent two or three days last week visiting her niece, Mrs. Helene Buhler, of South Paris.

A birthday party was given to Dr. F. H. Packard, Saturday evening, July 23. A good company was present and nice gifts were received. The evening was spent playing whist and socially. Refreshments of ice cream were served.

WEST PARIS—TRAP CORNER

Merle Dean enjoyed a trip to Derby Line, Vt., Monday.

Bois Field of Boston was in town, recently.

Mrs. B. L. Swift is caring for her brother's baby for a while.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett DeNormandie and son, of Massachusetts, and Mrs. Ellen Hammon of Norway called at Earle Treworgy's, Saturday evening.

Miss Olga McKenney gave a piano recital at Grange Hall, August 4. Her sister, Sylvia, will assist with the violin.

SOUTH WOODSTOCK

Mrs. George Rice and nephew, Walter Rice, of Massachusetts, are visiting her sister, Mrs. Andrew Rose.

Mrs. Rose Brooks, Arthur Brooks, Laura Brooks of South Paris, and Ted Blodgett of Bowdoinham were guests at A. N. Pelt's, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Tuell and two children, Gilman and Helen, and Leroy Everett were in Denmark, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Appleby, Mrs. Abner Benson and Mrs. Nelson Perham went to Pigeon Hill, Monday night.

Mrs. Grace Briggs and children, Margaret Tuell, spent Thursday with Mrs. George Tuell.

Mrs. Fred Cash was in the place, Monday. Her little girl, Lillian, who has been boarding at Walter Appleby's, went home with her, but will return the first of September.

George Tuell recently sold a yoke of steers to George Dwyer of Turner.

Charles Swift has returned from Sweden.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Barber of Portland were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Seth Hadley, Sunday.

Mrs. A. N. Pelt, Mr. and Mrs. George Tuell and children, Mr. and Mrs. Adney Tuell, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Davis, Mrs. Annie Bryant, Edna Davis, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Q. Perham, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Perham, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Andrews and Mrs. Mary Stevens attended Pomona Grange at Newry, Tuesday.

Lewis Hadley is sick.

LOCKE'S MILLS

The Whittings of Portland are at Lake-side Cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cole are entertaining Mr. Lambdin of Florida.

OTISFIELD

Miss Esma Mills

The many friends of Miss Esma Mills of Ryefield Bridge Farm in Otisfield, were greatly saddened by her sudden death, July 26, at M. G. hospital where she went for treatment on July 5th.

She was born in Bethel, Maine, the daughter of George Eugene and Ella Shaw Mills. The greater part of her life was spent in Rochester, Mass., where she was much beloved by a large circle of friends.

She was an active worker in the Dorchester Temple Baptist Church and retained her membership there when, a few years ago, failing health obliged her to give up her position in Boston, and come to her parents' farm in Maine.

Her character was singularly sweet and unselfish. Her spirit of helpfulness endeared her to everybody. She had a keen sense of humor, an unusual capacity for true happiness, and unbounded energy and enthusiasm.

Her social, altruistic nature caused her to take an active helpful interest in all the people of her community, and her influence was far-reaching and lasting.

Her illness during the past year was borne with remarkable fortitude and optimism. Her father passed away only nine months ago. She leaves a mother, Mrs. Ella A. Mills, a brother, Carlton R. Mills of Fryeburg, four nieces and three nephews.

The services were held July 29th at her home in Otisfield, Rev. John Singleton of the Methodist Episcopal church officiating.

The floral tributes were exceedingly beautiful and as follows.

Pillow, "Daughter"—Mrs. G. E. Mills. Sweet Peas—Mrs. Clara Whitman, Miss Julia A. Gherese.

Sandwiches—Mr. and Mrs. George Barron. Roses—Mr. and Mrs. Nathan R. Mills, Gertrude Mills.

Pink and White Pinks—Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Shaw and family.

Sweet Peas—Mr. and Mrs. E. M. G. Gherese. Gladioli—Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McAllister, Mr. and Mrs. Mollie B. McAllister.

Basket of Roses—Mr. and Mrs. Walker B. Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Mayhew, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Flowers—Neighbors from Otisfield Gore.

Spray of Mixed Flowers—Friends from Dolsey's Mills.

Hydrangeas and Cosmos—Mrs. Fannie Frost and family.

Double Pink Poppies—Mr. and Mrs. Eben Cook, Mrs. Zelma Hancock.

Sweet Peas—Mr. and Mrs. Harold Caswell, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Shedd.

Roses—Mr. and Mrs. Everett Brackett. Carnations—Mr. and Mrs. Francis Patten.

White Pinks—Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Sawyer. Roses—Mr. and Mrs. E. O. M. Peabody.

Pinks—Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Sawyer. Pinks—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brackett.

Pinks—Mr. and Mrs. George Emerson, Miss Bessie Crismon Pinks—Mrs. Dr. Dresser.
